

Fun Stuff for Teens to do in Lockdown

- 1 Go to the theatre: Every Thursday at 7pm National Theatre are showing free full-length productions of their best shows such as One Man Two Guvnors with James Corden,
- 2 See a ballet: Likewise, the Royal Ballet has uploaded some its productions on its YouTube page.
- 3 Online Quiz Night: Try some fun teenage test quizzes to find answers to questions, such as which Disney Princess you are.
- 4 Camp out: One for siblings that actually get on well, given you can't invite your friends.
- 5 Make cake pops: OK, it's just baking, but seriously, have you ever tried to make cake pops? Very fiddly, very time-consuming, very addictive once you have all the sprinkles and melted chocolate buttons to play with. Guaranteed to stay occupied for a whole afternoon.
- 6 Crack the Rubik's Cube: The riddle of how to solve the Rubik's cube stumps most avid game players – can you crack it?
- 7 Create bespoke art for your rooms: You can still buy spray paint and a giant canvas on Amazon, so head for the garden and let loose with your imagination to come up with your own unique design.
- 8 Spin a basketball on your fingertip: Wouldn't it be so cool to be able to do that on TikTok?
- 9 Make a photo book: Have a look through your favourite photos and design a photobook to capture those special memories.
- 10 Learn to Juggle: Careful with this one. Maybe get the family involved and see who will hold the record.
- 11 Plan a holiday: Ask for a budget then let loose on the internet to plan the perfect family holiday.
- 12 Do a virtual dive or space trip: Watch 3D underwater videos or space exploration on YouTube to enjoy some much-needed escapism.
- 13 Search Roller Coaster POV: Rollercoaster videos from the perspective of the person in the front row.
- 14 Visit a museum: Art galleries and museums are putting some of their collections online, so there's an unprecedented amount of things you can now see up close without the queues! Take a look at the Natural History Museum's fossil exhibition and step back a few billion years.
- 15 Learn an instrument: Ukuleles or harmonicas are inexpensive and you can even learn online for free.
- 16 Have a Nerf gun battle: This also doubles as exercise.
- 17 Check out the Scouts website: There are fun things for all ages including older teens.
- 18 Have a virtual film night with friends: Netflix Party allows you to watch a film with friends – and the upside is that no one else can hog the popcorn. Advise parental control.
- 19 Play Dungeons & Dragons: You can stay at home and play at home on D&D online.
- 20 Make giant bubbles: Traditionally an activity for small kids, but we defy anyone not to love a giant bubble.
